how would you
define an entrepreneur?

what do you enjoy
most about
entrepreneurship?
what do you find the
hardest about it?

are there any
similarities between
the characteristics
demanded of an
entrepreneur and
those of a
professional athlete?

what's more
important:
innovation or
integrity?

what's your definition
of success?

how do you
manage your
work-life balance?

what advice would
you give to starting
entrepreneurs?
what is the best piece
of advice you've ever
received?

what are the three
most important
habits to be a
successful
entrepreneur?

how do you foster
creative thinking?

can you give us a
breakdown of your
background and
how you ended up
where you are?

how do you manage
both your career and
your passion?

are they the same?

what is the most
rewarding aspect of
starting your own
business?

what were some of the
biggest challenges you
faced when starting
your business?

how did you overcome
them?

what are some key
lessons you've
learned throughout
your entrepreneurial
journey?

to what or who do
you owe your success?

do you ever get
imposter
syndrome?

how do you deal
with it?

SOUL SUPPER: ENTREPRENEURSHIP

what are some hard choices you had to make to get where you are?

is there something that you would have done differently when starting your brand?

do you believe that your worth is related to your career's success?

what are some things you currently do that contribute to your productivity, happiness and success?

what would you attempt to achieve if success was guaranteed?

do you believe purpose and success relate to one another?

how do you feel your success may impact others?

what role have relationships and networking played in the success of your brand?
